

RULE 26 - TRUSTEES'S COMPENSATION

26.1 Except where the instrument creating a trust makes provisions for compensation, a testamentary trustee may charge a fee not to exceed 5% of income. Other compensation for a trustee may be made by application to the court and may be ordered; provided, said compensation is in accordance with compensation typically charged by the trustee and is customary in the community. A hearing on these matters may be held.
